This overview of benefits is a simplified information aid. The statutory and contractual provisions (General and Supplementary Terms of Contract GTCI, version of 1 January 2018, and supplementary insurance T&Cs, version of 1 January 2020, of the EGK-SUN product) are the sole legally decisive provisions.

This disclaimer deploys gender-neutral language, with 'they' used to refer to both sexes.

EGK-SUN

Security for your health

The EGK-SUN supplementary health insurance policy is comprehensive insurance protection for traditional and complementary medicine. It is available in four variations. You select the hospital coverage appropriate for your requirements. Families can insure each member individually.

Confer with your EGK customer consultant about which form of protection is right for your health. Individual advising gives you security.

General EGK-SUN benefits

Hospital coverage à la carte

Select the hospital coverage you need: general, semi-private or private ward of a public or private acute care hospital in Switzerland. Included are hospitals geared to complementary medicine according to the EGK List.

Benefits for your health

We support you when you do good things for your health. Many healthy activities are included in EGK-SUN.

Freedom of choice

Within the framework of the contract provisions, you can select what method, what physician and what hospital will enjoy your trust.

With EGK-SUN, complementary medicine is on an equal footing with traditional medicine.

At EGK-SUN, naturopaths registered with EGK are virtually on an equal footing with their colleagues who practice traditional medicine.

Guidance and quality

Make use of the free advice from our therapist referral desk. We will refer you to naturopaths and therapists who meet EGK's high quality standards. Call our therapist phone line: 032 623 64 80.
